++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Dry, mild but cloudy, some clear spells in the north.

This Evening and Tonight:
A southwest-northeast split overnight, with cloud across the former and clearer spells across the far northeast. Chilly under any clear spells, with a risk of fog patches and frost. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Thursday:
Fog slowly clearing on Thursday morning before cloud spreads more widely across the region, with occasional bright spells in the afternoon. Largely dry but a touch less mild than lately. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Largely settled into the weekend, but on the cloudy side with limited bright spells in the afternoon. Continued risk of fog and frost under overnight cloud breaks. Gradually turning colder.
